President's Report.

Greetings again all, Clubbers & all that read the bi-monthly club newsletter. Missed June/July as the Classic 2008 took up a lot of spare time.

The Classic 2008 was a success great with the weather and varying swell size making it a relaxing 2 days of longboarding fun. We had over 100 competitors, a pleasing aspect considering the present economic climate & the amount of other things on. I want to thank all involved in the club for their participation & efforts in running the event & making it a success. The final results showed a consistent sprinkle of Lennox club members in finals. I also thank the crew who prepared & completed the trophies, my dad Joe Booth, myself, Terry Kay, George Leslie & Greg Gover, great stuff guys.

Also we should thank as we do all the sponsors of the event, without them we are at a loss. And finally we as a club should put our hands together for the core committee, Wayne Booth, George Leslie & Peter Stephens a determined crew to make 2008 a success.

President's Report Con't

The preceding advert is a plug for my partner Julie, she is a marriage celebrant & with spring just round the corner, what better time to renew those vows or organize that special day. I can personally vouch for a professionally prepared service especially around our beautiful coastline that we do have.

Other club news was the participation in the both the Allgirls Showdown 2008 in June & Gromfest 2008 in July by club members in contest setups & pull downs, a great effort from all in the club & greatly appreciated with forwarding funds to the club.

Coming up in around the October long weekend is the annual Evans Head Longboard Invitational at Evans Head. The entry forms are out now, contact Phil Roxburgh and it's a great camping weekend that the club has done in the pas.

A couple of big birthday dates are coming up this year "the big 50" for Neil Edmonds with a 50th do on Saturday September the 13th, flyers are around, & your's truly' planned for the 1st November. A birthday wish for Forfar Petrie last Thursday the 7th August. How old????? something over the big 50.

Well crew I'll leave you with a great pic from Classic 2008, thank you for the leis from Penny Leslie from www.islandstyle.net.au and little a bit of humor to end this report.

See you in the deep blue. Keep surfing & enjoying it. 2008 Pres. (Boothy) Wayne Booth.

Secretary's Report

As Wayne mentioned the entry forms for the 2008 Evans Head Longboard Invitational being held from Friday 3rd to Monday 6th October are now out. I have emailed them to all our club members but if you missed it or want more let me know or email Phil Roxburgh on philliproxburgh@hotmail.com for more info.

I would like to also thank all those who helped in putting the UV Natural Sunscreen 11th Annual Lennox Longboard Classic 08Classic together. In particular Booth, with his annual effort and Peter Stephens. Peter is only a new member of the club and really tossed himself into helping out with the planning and chasing sponsors, great stuff son.

My thanks also to Wayne Stickley from UV Natural International. I approached Wayne fairly late on in the planning for the Classic and we were lucky enough to have them offer a great supply of sunscreen for every competitor and gaining the naming rights to the Classic.

The Ladies Finalists in the UV Natural Sunscreen 11th Annual Lennox Longboard Classic 2008

One personal comment, and plea, that I would like to make to our club members, and really to any club member anywhere who might get our newsletter. There is an ever increasing lack of care, with littering from so many people, that I believe it's time that we, the local crew, took some pride in where they live, and if you see some rubbish/trash just pick it up and 'bin it'.

Its no big deal to pick it up but it amazes me how many people just walk past rubbish and ignore it. We live in a most beautiful place. Lets all help to keep it that way.

Cheers George
