President's Report.

I started my last newsletter by saying the year was racing by well incase you haven't noticed, it almost has. The Classic has come and gone and spring is in the air. Don't you just love that 40 knot north easterly wind?

The Lennox Head Longboard Classic 2009 was an outstanding success. As a club we all pulled together to put on an event that I think we can all be very proud of. A special thank you should go to the Classic committee but I think most club members had an opportunity to contribute and did. Alone we can do so little but together we can do so much.

It certainly helped that the weather was great and the surf was excellent or good, most of the time. Most of you would know that good surf and comps is not that common. I think the fact that we had good waves meant that a lot of competitors enjoyed themselves and subsequently the spirit of competition was great. As head judge I can report no one expressed any disappointment with their results. In fact I don't think we had even one enquiry. Although on a personal note I think there were grounds for me to have a whinge about my results but I suspect no one would have listened.

Anyway enough of that, apart from the obvious success of the classic from both the competitors' and the clubs' point of view, for me the highlight was the standard of the surfing. There were some very big maneuvers including a vertical 360 and some hang tens in very critical sections. This sort of surfing is really pushing the boundaries of what is possible.

I have received complaints about the length of my earlier reports so I'll wrap it up. Before I go I'd like to remind everyone to make the most of everyday, don't drop in (except on your friends), give your fellow surfers a smile and spare a thought for Paul Hicks. We're thinking of you mate. I'll leave you with the following quote:

Let us be grateful to people who make us happy; they are the charming gardeners who make our souls happy – Marcel Proust.

Until next time, take care.....Pete R

STRETCHES FOR SURFING

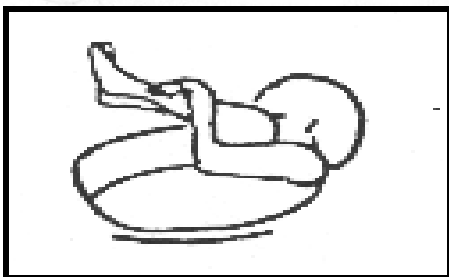

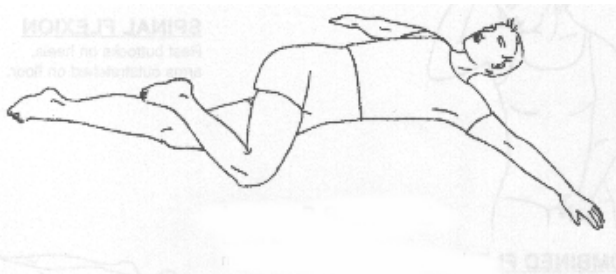

Provided by Sally from the Lennox Head
Physiotherapy Centre

Below are two stretches that will help to reverse the over activity and tightness of the lower back muscles that can arise with paddling.

The pictures should explain the stretches well.

How are you going with your TRICEPS and QUADRICEPS muscle stretches?

Remember STRETCHING will help your overall performance with improved muscle ELASTICITY and FLEXIBILITY.

Secretaries Report

G'day Clubbers,

Well as we all know the Classic was a great success and enjoyed by both competitors and spectators alike. My thanks to all the club crew who helped out, in particular to Classic Committee of Boothy, Peter S, Peter R, Sally and Forfar, Dario, Doc and Tezza.

The Byron club are looking at latish in September to hold the 6 way inter club teams comp. As last year's winners they have the duty to organise this year's meet, guess it'll be up their way again. More info as it comes to hand, we'll be looking for strong support from ALL you club members.

You'll notice a new ad in the Classifieds this issue. It's from Joel Rowan from Express Surfboard Repairs. Joel has many years of experience in the industry and has set up in Ballina offering a brand new repair service. And the GREAT news is there is a 15% discount for club members. Just mention that you are a club member when you get a quote on your next repair job.

Mystery Finalist's Classic 2009

O/40's Finalist's Classic 2009

The 12TH ANNUAL LENNOX LONGBOARD CLASSIC 2009, Report & Results

On the weekend of the 1st & 2nd of August Lennox Longboarders club conducted the 12th Annual Lennox Longboard Classic 2009 at Lennox Main Beach in front of town. Attracting over 110 competitors covering 10 age & gender divisions. competitors came from as far north as Bundaberg QLD, South Australia & a competitor from France.

The weekend brought us sunshine plus, with favorable winds most of the morning & exceptional meter plus surf, perfect for longboards.

Saturday had heat rounds run in the am & just after midday the semi's started to make Sunday a more relaxed organized day. With good surf some outstanding surfing was shown.. Saturday night saw the festivities move to the Lennox Point Hotel at 7pm with the Mystery Final draw, competitor's giveaways & a longboard from Astro Surfboards going to a stoked Lennox local Terry Kay. It was a Tooheys promotion at the pub with them coming on board as a major sponsor this year. The surf band Mal & the Longboarders played to a near packed pub full of visitors & locals

Sunday brought on some great consistent swell & off shore winds for the whole morning, this provided some great longboarding from Glen Cunningham (Bundaberg) with radical turns in the O/30 & O/40's division. Smooth styling with carving turns, walking & nose riding skills from Eric Walker (Ballina) Jackson Close (Currumbin) excelling in the old Mal & Open 9' divisions, winning them both. Strong smooth styling from Kirsty Webster (Banora Point) lead her charge in the Open Ladies winner it clearly. The standout Junior Lady was Roisin Coralan

Sponsorship was at a premium with strong support from Tooheys, The Northern Star media group, the Lennox Point Hotel, Triple X Wetsuits, Sun Zapper Sunscreen, Stomp Surf wax, Australian Longboarding Mag, Maddog Surf Ballina, Rip Curl supporting the Cadets & Junior Divisions. Others that continue their support were Dirty Dog Eyewear, Headland Beach Resort Lennox Head. A small but worthy list of support from various cafes & businesses around Lennox, Ballina & further afield. All this support is highly valued & promotes this annual event & is greatly appreciated.

The Preso was at the Lennox Point Hotel were the raffle which was conducted over the entire event was drawn, results were First Prize of an Astro Longboard won by Emma Black (who was one of the competitors & picked up the board), Second Prize 2 nights Accommodation for 4 persons at the Headlands Beach Resort won by Stuart Cheval of Eltham, Third Prize 72 Litre Tooheys Esky won by Tom O'Dwyer of Lennox Head,
